CLERY Timely Warning 7-15

April 02, 2015

Attempted Larceny from a vehicle

On Thursday 04/02/15 at approximately 9:40 pm the UMSL Police Department responded to 8218 Natural Bridge Road (Zeta Sorority House) for a call of a larceny in progress. The witness had just pulled into the driveway and was talking on her cell phone when two juvenile males ran up to the victim's car parked in front of hers. The juveniles opened the car door and began to throw items out of the car. The witness backed out of the driveway and called the police. The action of her backing out caused the Juveniles to run away heading east along Natural Bridge and disappearing from view on Clearview Dr. heading into the Village of Bel-Nor. The Juvenile males are described as both 507 to 509 slender build. Approximately 13 to 15 years of age. Any information on this crime please contact the UMSL Police Department at 314-516-5155.

The UMSL Police Departments wants to remind you of these safety tips.

- Always park in well-lit areas before leaving your vehicle.
- If you notice anyone strange standing around do not get out of you vehicle and move to a more comfortable location.
- Do not leave valuables inside your vehicle and if you must hide them out of eye view before you leave the vehicle.
- Always lock your vehicle doors when leaving it.
